

11. EVERY MINUTE'S MUSIC

Braño Mago

All three situations take place at the same time.
They should be arranged on the stage side by side.
Pauses and precise timing have to be adhered to.
A dash indicates a change of speaker.

A man runs in while a round of gunshots can be heard.
He falls down bleeding.
- No no no no no!

He starts crawling forward
slowly.

I don't want to die...!

I... can't die...

Gunshots in the distance,
while he looks around,
scared.

Why me...?!
He stops crawling.
Why so soon?
Gunshots in the distance.

The floor is really... really cold...

He falls unconscious.

An out of breath couple enters, dressed in outdoor clothes with heavy backpacks. They are ascending a mountain peak.
- Let's go faster, we might still make it.
They continue walking and look forward.
...we made it!...
They stop walking.

- It's so beautiful!

- Look, behind that cloud...
the moon.

- The purple sky...

They hug each other,
continuing to look upon the sunset.

A person comes to a cash
register in a supermarket and hands goods to the tired cashier.

- Frozen broccoli.

10 eggs.

Coca-Cola, 1,5 litres.

Kitchen towels.

Bio tofu spread.

Fabric softener.

- And a Mars bar.

Will that be all?

- Yes.
- Do you have a customer loyalty card?
- No, I don't.
- Then it's going to cost 13,20.
